Toward Home Alliance

Homelessness Services

Adelaide CBD, Inner South and Adelaide Hills

Who are we?

The Toward Home Alliance (THA) is a partnership between the Department of Human Services (DHS) and a collaboration of organisations, including:

- Aboriginal Family Support Services
- Baptist Care SA
- Hutt St Centre
- Lutheran Care
- Mission Australia
- Sonder
- The Salvation Army.

We know it takes a community to end homelessness, and work together to ensure all experiences of homelessness are rare, brief and non-recurring.

What do we do?

We have a number of specialised teams who deliver:

- Prevention
- Diversion
- Wellbeing support
- Aboriginal-specific service delivery
- Brief intervention support
- Accommodation.

Our services:

- Case management
- Housing support and referrals
- Information and advocacy
- Emergency and short-term accommodation
- Connection with other services
- Support for young people experiencing homelessness
- Street outreach.

Who can access THA's services?

As the Central/South homelessness alliance, THA works with people who:

- Are currently based in, or connected to the Adelaide CBD, South or Adelaide Hills regions;
AND
- Are currently housed, but their tenancy is at risk
OR
- Are currently experiencing homelessness (including couch surfing, living in a car or sleeping rough).

If you're based outside the above region, contact Homeless Connect SA on 1800 003 308.

We know that every person's experience of homelessness is different. We will walk alongside you, providing support specific to your needs.
